PRIVACY POLICY

The Animal Services Unit for the Kansas City Kansas Police Department respects the privacy of every individual who visits this web site. You may visit our web site without telling us who you are or providing any information about yourself. Animal Services will not collect any personally identifiable information about you (e.g. name, address, phone number) unless you have voluntarily provided such information to us.

Animal Services provides the option for our customers to pay for pet licensing and registrations via our website. In order to process such payments, you are required to provide us with certain personal information, such as name, telephone number, address, email address, and credit card number. This information is used solely to process the payment initiated by you, and is securely transmitted to and processed by a third-party payment processing site. If you do not wish to provide this information on our web site, then you may make your payment in person, by telephone or via the postal service. We will not sell or share this information with outside companies or third parties, except as needed to process such payments and pursuant to the Kansas Open Records Act K.S.A. 45-215 et seq.

This privacy policy applies only to this web site and any information generated from this web site.
